Each on-screen player in FIFA 22 will feature the latest version of Player Impact Engine (PIE), the next iteration of the game's visual technology. The improved version of PIE features a "lightning-fast" ball motion capture, better player animations and a new "Overwatch" system that detects when a player is about to make a tackle. View the official trailer: "FIFA on the Web" was released on January 24 to celebrate the game's World Cup Fan Festival and will allow fans to use their mobile device to connect with their favorite teams, leagues, players and clubs. The new Web App allows users to view fixtures, scoreboards, standings, news and social media highlights, for a true fan experience. Users can also take part in the latest competition: the FIFA World Cup Virtual Fan Tournaments (WWC VFT). "In FIFA 22, the game's performance allows us to deliver more next-generation features than ever before," said Ian Darke, Executive Producer at EA SPORTS. "We are making a bold commitment to the players, clubs, fans and developers to deliver deeper, richer, more authentic and responsive football on all platforms." In FIFA 22, players will be able to tackle the most agile opponents and be more mobile on the pitch. In addition, there will be better ball control and more movement options, as well as more attacking options through intelligent decisions when players control a teammate on the wing. The gameplay experience during matches will also be more authentic thanks to a new “player-first” philosophy, which focuses on enhancing the overall player experience as much as it does the game’s visuals. There will be better control over the ball, more reliable tackling, quicker forward passes and more effective passing. More nuanced game play in matches will also add more energy to the player dynamic in matches. In FIFA 22, players can choose to play on one of eight legendary international football pitches, each with their own brand new lighting and weather conditions. They can also adjust the game’s ball physics settings and assign a ball to any one of the players on the pitch. FIFA 22 will be available March 29 on Xbox One, PlayStation 4, PC and Nintendo Switch.   - Added Authenticity on both Ball Control and Passing. Improved player animations, ball physics and positioning make passes and runs more realistic. Above all, you'll feel the intensity of a 22-hour football match.

  - An Authentic Stadium. Experience the intensity of a packed stadium with a host of new sounds and sightlines including the new TV screens. Remove the curses in the stands and immerse yourself in the atmosphere.

1. Modernize play and introduce new features FIFA is changing. The most important changes come in the form of overhauled gameplay, so that the game feels faster, more responsive, and less predictable than ever before. The work in the engine, right down to the mechanics of ball possession, impacts how teams build out of the back, and how they attack and defend. From fluid passing and intelligent AI that better recognizes and reacts to off-the-ball movement, to a no-nonsense approach to the goalkeeper when clearing the ball and a new iteration of Dribbling, you'll see and feel the difference. FIFA 22 introduces advanced attacking gameplay mechanics, with the ball and off-the-ball controls designed to create more varied opening situations, while working with the new Speed Shot Control system to give players more confidence in their deliveries.
2. Full-Year 'Keepers & Defenders' Mode lets you play, decide, and lock in future gameplay
